Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 21-32 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-22 of U.S. Patent No. 6,616,498. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims recited in application no. 10/764749 are of similar subject matter but broader in scope than the claims of patented case 6,616,498. For example, in claim 27 of '749 a "means for controlling the amount of air..." is recited and in claim 19 of '498 "an air control system" is recited. However it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the means for controlling the amount of air as claimed and make it an air control system for the purpose of regulate the air flow.

Art Unit: 3712

Claim Objections

3. Claim 24 is objected to because of the following informalities: There is a lack of antecedent basis for "the coupled", recited in line 3 of claim 24. Appropriate correction is required.
